Gentian Hill Pet Hotel

Terms & Conditions

- Whilst every possible care and attention is given to each pet boarded, it is clearly understood that all animals are accepted entirely at the owners' risk. In an emergency or illness, we will try to contact the owner or his/her nominated contact and our designated vet will provide veterinary treatment, unless specified otherwise.
- All cats/dogs must have up-to-date inoculation cards, which must be shown on arrival and kept on site until you collect your pet. You must bring it with you when checking in or we cannot accept your cat/dog. Kennel cough is optional; however, we will not be liable should your dog contract this illness.
- Please ensure that your pet has been wormed and had an effective flea and tick treatment.
- The proprietors reserve the right to refuse admission to any pet showing signs of ill health. We reserve the right to seek veterinary assistance in the unlikely event that your pet should become sick or need surgery.
- Owners will need to declare any history of veterinary or behaviour problems that could reoccur while boarding with us. The more we know about your pet, the better for them!
- We will not accept any animals with aggressive tendencies towards people.
- We supply beds and bedding and we encourage owners to bring suitable, favourite toys. However, we cannot be held responsible if the toys are chewed or swallowed by your pet. We will not accept responsibility for any items belonging to customers that become damaged or cause injury.
- If cats or dogs from the same family are sharing a room, we are not responsible for any injuries they may encounter, should they fight. If the owner is aware their pets may fight whilst sharing, then they must be boarded separately and you consent to them being separated if needed.
- Any cat/dog not collected within 7 days after the end of the original booking period will become the property of Gentian Hill. Any outstanding fees will be pursued legally.
- We reserve the right to change or amend the conditions without prior notice.
